

MASTER OF DIVINITY (MDIV)

Program Overview

Reformed University's Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree program is designed to prepare students for full-time service in the church of Jesus Christ. The MDiv program is a comprehensive basic theological program that enables students to integrate their understanding of the various disciplines of theology and ministry with their experience of the church and the world, thus preparing them for diverse ministries; pastoral ministry, mission, teaching, or ministries of social service and chaplaincy.

Program Objectives

The Master of Divinity degree program aims to:

- Prepare students with a foundational knowledge of the historical/theological content of Scripture with an application to selected contemporary situations.
- Prepare students to interpret biblical writings in the Greek and Hebrew languages, using critical exegetical tools and writing a hermeneutical and exegetical paper.
- Provide a basic knowledge of the history of Christianity.
- Provide a basic knowledge of theology and Christian doctrines.
- Enable students to integrate biblical and theological understanding with practical ministry strategies.
- Equip students with the biblical, theological and ethical understanding necessary to analyze and discuss contemporary social issues affecting the church and society.
- Enable students to develop and articulate a theology and theory of ministry that is relevant to their backgrounds and callings.
- Provide opportunities to demonstrate necessary skills for ministry within a variety of traditions, churches and cross-cultural contexts.
- Promote a biblical/theological understanding of the person, work and ministry of the Holy Spirit.
- Enable students to articulate clearly their ministry/professional calling.
- Enable students to develop a theology and theory of ministry that integrates biblical and theological content with practical ministry skills.

Admission Requirements

The Admissions Committee will review all submitted information. Any student seeking admission to the MDiv program must possess an accredited Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent and a grade point average of 2.5 on all previous post-secondary credits to be admitted on other than a probationary status. Whenever deemed necessary, the Admissions Committee or the Admissions Office may also request an interview with the candidate for a final acceptance approval.

1. Application form.
2. Non-refundable application fee.
3. Official transcripts sealed and mailed directly to Reformed University of all college, university, or seminary records, showing all courses pursued, grades received, and degrees earned, and indicating a minimum grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale or its equivalent
4. A certified copy of the applicant's bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.
5. Two letters of recommendation from the applicant's home church pastor or an ordained minister, a teacher or a college professor, and one other non-family person.
6. An essay explaining the applicant's interest in pursuing education at Reformed University.

Degree Requirements

The master of divinity degree is a 90 credit hour course program and is structured to be completed in four to five years of full-time study, and the maximum length of time allowed to complete the program is six years from the time of admission. Students in the Master of Divinity program must complete basic required courses such as Old- and New Testament-related courses; Introduction to the History of Christian Theology, and Systematic Theology, in addition to other pastoral-related courses.
